INNOVATION STORIES: BREAST IMAGING

Breast Imaging will be introducing a new software tool for patient care that provides more accuracy in quantifying breast density and subsequent risk of cancer.

SCOUT reflectors are preoperative localization devices which provide greater patient comfort and scheduling ease compared to traditional wires. The team has a new lateral arm technique for placing them under tomosynthesis guidance. The team is also the first in Arizona to place these under MRI guidance, with 4 cases successfully performed to date.

The breast center has been using a Teams messaging process that frees up technicians and allows for smoother workflows.

Where do you call home?
Home is Taiwan. Grew up in Taiwan and finished college there before returning to the US for med school.

What is the best thing about the field of Radiology?
Best thing about radiology: it is a highly cerebral specialty. Everyday there are new challenges waiting to be solved.

What is on the horizon after graduation?
I will complete a year of Cardiothoracic Imaging fellowship at Stanford Medicine.

3 fun facts
1. I am able to gain/lose ~10 lb. Of body weight within 2 weeks with nutrition and training.
2. You’ll probably find me chasing after high adrenaline activities.
3. I am loving and proud of being a dad of my almost 2-year-old daughter.
Where do you call home?
Glendale, Arizona is home.

What is the best thing about the field of Radiology?
The best thing about Radiology is our exposure to a huge variety of diagnoses and being able to help our clinical colleagues across all specialties.

What is on the horizon after graduation?
After graduation, I will be staying here at U of A for Interventional Radiology Independent Residency. Then, the plan is private practice back home in the Glendale/West Phoenix area.

3 fun facts
1. Huge Arizona sports fan! Was lucky enough to take my family to the World Series in October.
2. Horrible, but avid Golfer.
3. Have two awesome sons, Benjamin(10) and James(5). Little league and flag football dad on weekends.
In Episode 61, “A Cross Disciplinary Leader,” host Geoff Rubin, MD, talks with Michael D. Dake, MD, Senior Vice President for Health Sciences and Professor of Medical Imaging, Surgery and Medicine at The University of Arizona.
IR TEAM MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Kudos to a shining star in Interventional Radiology, recently featured on the BannerHealth Careers X account (formerly Twitter)

Lizeth Peralta-Castro
Special Procedures Lead in Interventional Radiology
Banner – University Medical Center Tucson

LIZETH PERALTA-CASTRO
Special Procedures Lead
Banner – University Medical Center Tucson

I began my Banner journey in 2016 as a new grad radiologic technologist. A year into my Banner career, I was allowed to cross-train in Interventional Radiology and instantly knew my heart was in the procedural area of medical imaging! The work we do in IR is rewarding because our team takes pride in providing quality service to patients.

Being part of this amazing team has helped me learn and grow into my current position as Special Procedures Lead in IR. This role has provided the opportunity to collaborate with different teams and work together to continuously improve our patients’ experience and work diligently to enhance our expertise. It is my pleasure to be a part of Banner and deliver our patients quality care & service.
